

In The News

Christian George Receives “Chair of the Year” Award from Jacksonville Bar Association

June 16, 2015

Christian George received the “Chair of the Year” award by the Jacksonville Bar Association in honor of his exceptional stewardship as chair of the organization’s Bench and Bar Professionalism Committee, which is tasked with maintaining collegiality and professionalism among Jacksonville lawyers, as well as periodically enforce violations of professional standards for the city’s legal industry.

Related People

Christian P. George

Related Offices

Jacksonville