

People

Amy Michelle Santos

Associate, Litigation

New York *

T: +1 202 824 1763

michelle.santos@akerman.com

vCard

Michelle Santos focuses her practice on dispute resolution, commercial litigation and arbitration across the United States and Latin America, representing clients in industries such as telecommunications, construction, technology, and financial services. She has experience handling litigation and arbitration for large-scale construction projects, including high-rises, power generation facilities, and other critical infrastructure. Additionally, Michelle's practice includes white collar crime, as well as government investigations and enforcement actions across a range of areas.

Michelle was previously an associate in Honduras performing real estate and general litigation duties as well as a project attorney at UnitedLex.

Related Professional Experience

- UnitedLex, Project Attorney, 2016-2019
- Central American Bank of Economic Integration (CABEI), Senior Contract Attorney, 2010-2011
- HSBC Bank, Senior Contract Attorney, 2008-2009

Areas of Experience

Litigation
International
International Litigation and Arbitration
Construction Litigation and Dispute Resolution
White Collar Crime and Government Investigations Construction
Government Contracts
Energy and Infrastructure
Data Centers and Digital Infrastructure

Education

LL.M., Florida International University College of Law, 2015
LL.B., Universidad Tecnológica Centroamericana (UNITEC), College of Law, 2007

Admissions

Bars

New York

Languages

Spanish

Location

*Non-resident