

In The News

Jay Harrington Named to Jacksonville 40 Under 40 List

March 14, 2025

The Jacksonville Business Journal has named Akerman Litigation Partner Jay Harrington to its 2025 “40 Under 40” list. The list honors 40 up-and-comers for their community leadership and industry impact.

Harrington focuses his practice on commercial litigation and creditors’ rights, representing financial institutions, publicly traded businesses, and individuals in a wide range of matters. He also has significant experience in professional liability claims and class action litigation. He is also one of Akerman’s “Pro Bono Superstars”, having dedicated at least 50 hours each fiscal year to serving the community. This year, he is protecting voter rights by representing affected voters in a lawsuit challenging the legality of voting district maps adopted by a Florida municipality and its board of commissioners.

Click here to view this news.

Related People

Howard “Jay”
Harrington

Related Work

Litigation

Related Offices

Jacksonville