Akerman Hosts Virtual Lunch and Learn titled “Medicare Advantage in the Senior and Long Term Care Industry”

March 31, 2025

12:30 PM – 1:15 PM ET

Virtual Webinar

Akerman’s Senior Living and Care Sector Team and Healthcare Practice Group will host an informal lunch and learn webinar series. This session is designed to provide an overview of Medicare Advantage (MA) plans within the senior and long-term care industry. It aims to equip healthcare professionals, legal advocates, and service providers with essential insights into how MA plans operate, what their benefits and limitations are, and the implications for senior care.

This discussion will help attendees:

- Understand the role of Medicare Advantage in the transition to value-based care.
- Analyze the evolving landscape of the senior housing industry and its integration with healthcare services.
- Navigate the legal framework of Medicare Advantage and Medicaid-funded assisted living.
