

In The News

Bryan Scott Named to Construction Law Power List

April 30, 2025

Akerman is pleased to share Litigation Partner Bryan Scott has been named to North Carolina Lawyers Weekly's "The Power List: Construction Law." The list recognizes attorneys who have a record of success, are respected by their colleagues, and are leaders in their field and communities.

Bryan is based in the firm's Winston-Salem office, where his work is focused on complex commercial litigation, construction law, and creditors' rights. He advises public and private owners, developers, contractors, lenders, and insurers on contracting, compliance, bidding, and operational issues, and resolves disputes through trial, arbitration, or negotiation. He counsels on projects including commercial, public, and multifamily construction, schools, hospitals, bridges, pipelines, and wastewater systems, among others.

Click here to view this news.

Related People

Bryan G. Scott

Related Work

Construction
Construction Litigation
and Dispute Resolution
Litigation

Related Offices

Winston-Salem