Law360 Once Again Ranks Akerman Practice Groups Among Top 100 Globally

November 18, 2015

Akerman maintained its dominance among the world's largest practice groups in bankruptcy, environmental, insurance, real estate and securities/white collar law. Law360's Largest Practice Groups Report distinguished Akerman for having the sixth largest Real Estate Practice Group, which saw an increase in cross-border deal work and double-digit headcount growth in 2015. The firm ranked among the top 50 insurance teams worldwide for a second consecutive year. Akerman also was represented as one of the 100 largest firms serving the financial services industry, with the greatest practice group size and reach in the areas of bankruptcy and reorganization, capital markets and securities litigation, as well as white collar crime and government investigations.

Law360's 100 Largest Practice Groups are based on partner headcount data from 300 U.S.-based law firms. Lawyers are evaluated based on the size of their practice in nine core areas.
