Akerman Hosts Symposium on Legal Insights into Southern California's Most Prominent Industries

September 10, 2025

Akerman LLP would like to thank panelists and attendees for joining Part One, where we explored how media, entertainment, and sports businesses engage consumers, expand their reach, and bolster revenue streams in a marketplace replete with litigation risk and ever-evolving regulatory scrutiny.

Through discussions of notable projects and events, we examined successful cross-industry strategies that have maximized ROI while effectively managing ongoing legal risks, including those related to privacy, real estate and land use, trade, intellectual property protection, and labor and employment.
