Robert Slavkin to Moderate and Felicia Nowels to Speak at Lex Mundi 2025 Healthcare & Life Sciences Practice Group Meeting

September 16, 2025
2:30 PM – 3:45 PM CEST

Via Giuseppe Verdi 4 I-20121
Milan, Italy

Robert Slavkin, Chair of Akerman's Healthcare Practice and Global Co-Chair of the Healthcare and Life Sciences Practice Group at Lex Mundi, will serve as the moderator for a panel titled "The First Nine Months of the U.S. Trump Administration and Its Global Impacts" at the upcoming Lex Mundi 2025 Healthcare & Life Sciences Practice Group Meeting. Joining him on the panel and representing the U.S. perspective is Akerman Partner and Regional Vice Chair, North America, of the Healthcare and Life Sciences Practice Group at Lex Mundi, Felicia Nowels, who will contribute her expertise in international trade and tariffs to the discussion.

This meeting, co-hosted by Robert and fellow co-chair Martin Mosteirín, a partner at Marval in Buenos Aires, Argentina, will bring together Lex Mundi legal professionals from around the world to engage in meaningful networking, address pressing issues affecting the healthcare and life sciences sectors, and identify new avenues for business development across global markets.
