

In The News

The Wall Street Journal Highlights Akerman's New Miami Office at Brickell City Centre

May 20, 2015

In an article titled, “Property Dynasties Team Up to Fund Miami Project,” The Wall Street Journal reported Akerman as the lead office tenant at Brickell City Centre in Miami, an innovative $1.05 billion project developed by Swire Properties Inc. at the epicenter of one of the largest financial districts in the United States. As Miami’s largest corporate lease transaction in 2014, Akerman will occupy 80 percent of the new office building. The article examined megaprojects in South Florida and developer strategies in the new real estate cycle.

Click here to view this news.

Related Work

Construction
Real Estate

Related Offices

Miami