Elizabeth Hodge to Speak on Health Data Privacy and Breach Prevention

November 5, 2025

1:10 PM – 2:00 PM ET

Virtual Webinar

Elizabeth Hodge will be speaking at the Florida Bar Health Law Section Compliance and Regulatory Continuing Education Program 2025. This event offers a unique opportunity to engage with leading experts on key ethical challenges facing lawyers in the health law field.

Elizabeth will participate as a panelist in the session titled “Where Do We Not Want Our Data to Go? Privacy Anyone?” The discussion will focus on real-world scenarios involving potential breaches of individuals’ health information, evaluating whether such incidents constitute breaches under HIPAA and other applicable federal and Florida privacy laws. The panel will provide expert insights on legal requirements, strategic responses, and procedural best practices for managing data breaches. Attendees will gain valuable guidance on minimizing organizational risk and effectively addressing the consequences of health data privacy incidents.
