Akerman Co-Hosts Webinar on Affordable Housing Ballot Proposals in NYC

November 21, 2025

10:00 AM – 11:00 AM ET

Webinar

Akerman's New York Land Use and Zoning Practice will co-host a webinar with Constantinople & Vallone Consulting LLC focused on the recently adopted affordable housing ballot proposals and their anticipated impact on development in New York City. Featured Akerman speakers include partners Nora Martins and Steven Sinacori. Additional speakers include Jordan Press, Partner at Constantinople & Vallone Consulting LLC, and Brendan Cheney, Director of Policy and Operations at the New York Housing Conference.

This engaging and insightful session will provide a comprehensive overview of the new ballot measures, including their legal and regulatory implementation. The discussion will address how these proposals may affect the development pipeline, explore issues related to financing and incentives, and examine zoning and land use considerations. Attendees will also gain insight into potential administrative and procedural challenges, as well as matters concerning monitoring, compliance, and enforcement. The webinar will conclude with an analysis of the long-term implications these changes may have for affordable housing and development in New York City.
