The Akerman Angle: Health Law Rx Podcast - Episode 3: Government Healthcare Enforcement Policies, '25 and Beyond

December 4, 2025

Akerman Healthcare partners Noam Fischman and Jeremy Burnette join Healthcare Practice Group Chair Robert Slavkin for a discussion on recent healthcare enforcement trends in 2025 and beyond. In this episode, the panel provides an overview of:

- The current landscape of federal healthcare enforcement, including the formation of new government task forces and the use of AI in fraud detection;
- Financial incentives driving enforcement actions;
- The increasing role of whistleblowers and litigation funders; and
- Heightened scrutiny of sectors such as wound care, biologics, and genetic testing.

The episode also covers practical steps healthcare organizations can take to strengthen compliance programs, respond effectively to government investigations, and address individual liability risks for providers and investors in a rapidly evolving regulatory environment.
