

Seminars and Conferences

Akerman to Host Webinar on Major Changes to Illinois Labor and Employment Law in 2026

January 14, 2026

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM CT

Webinar

Akerman's Traditional Labor Law Co-Chairs, Amy Moor Gaylord and Tom Mandler, will present a webinar addressing the significant changes to Illinois labor and employment law taking effect in 2026. The program will provide practical guidance on how these new laws are expected to impact workplace policies, compliance strategies, and labor relations across the state.

This informative and forward-looking webinar will offer actionable insights into the evolving legal landscape, equipping organizations with the knowledge needed to prepare for compliance and operational success in 2026 and beyond. The webinar is designed for HR professionals, in-house counsel, business owners, labor relations specialists, and all individuals responsible for workplace compliance in Illinois, regardless of whether the workforce is unionized, nonunion, or both.

Key topics will include:

- Overview of new Illinois labor and employment laws effective in 2026

Related People

Amy Moor Gaylord
Thomas Y. Mandler

Related Work

Labor and Employment
Traditional Labor Law

Related Offices

Chicago

- The use of AI in the workplace and its impact on employers
- Updates to wage and hour requirements, including minimum wage and overtime
- Compliance strategies for HR, legal, and management teams
- Best practices for adapting policies and procedures to meet new legal obligations
- Q&A: Addressing your most pressing compliance concerns

Register

Click here to register for this event.