Marissa Alguire Honored with Los Angeles Business Journal Leaders of Influence: Thriving in Their 40s Award

December 16, 2025

Labor and Employment Practice Group Deputy Chair Marissa Alguire has been named among the 2025 Leaders of Influence: Thriving in Their 40s by the Los Angeles Business Journal. The publication selects honorees for this highly competitive recognition based on their professional achievements, community leadership, milestones, and recent notable accomplishments.

Marissa represents employers in all aspects of employment-related business matters and litigation in state and federal courts, and in arbitration. Her practice focuses on the defense of management in class action, multi-plaintiff, and single plaintiff lawsuits in claims of harassment, discrimination, wrongful termination, retaliation, wage and hour violations, and PAGA issues. She also defends clients in proceedings before the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U.S. Department of Labor, and the Employment Development Department. Marissa works with employers in various sectors, including technology, entertainment, hospitality, manufacturing, retail, and healthcare.

She also advises clients on employment policies and procedures, internal investigations, accommodation
