

Speaking Engagements

Amy Moor Gaylord to Speak at LERA's 78th Annual Meeting

May 28, 2026 to May 31, 2026

The Royal Sonesta Minneapolis
35 S 7th St.
Minneapolis, MN

Amy Moor Gaylord, Co-Chair of Akerman's Traditional Labor Law Practice, will speak at the Labor and Employment Relations Association's (LERA) 78th Annual Meeting. The conference will explore current challenges and innovations shaping the future of labor and employment relations, while bringing together leading academics, practitioners, and policymakers

Amy will serve as a panelist on the following sessions, including:

- Bridging Legal and Contractual Worlds: Panel on External Law in Arbitration: This practitioner-focused panel will address the growing intersection between statutory employment claims and arbitration. Panelists will examine how external law is influencing grievance arbitration, offering practical insights for handling discrimination, leave, and wage disputes under the ADA, FMLA, and FLSA.
- Chicago LERA Presents "Med-Arb: Effective Models and Practices:" This discussion will offer insights on hybrid mediation-arbitration models and their effective implementation in workplace dispute resolution.

Related People

Amy Moor Gaylord

Related Work

Labor and Employment
Traditional Labor Law

Related Offices

Chicago

- The Role of Unions and Labor-Management Relations in Promoting American Democracy: This public policy session centers on the labor movement and the labor-management infrastructure established by the NLRA and its many state-wide public variants as the critical institution for preserving American democracy.

Register

Click here to register for this event.