James W. Grice to Present at Marsh Risk's 2026 Silicon Valley Technology Risk Forum

March 4, 2026

9:10 AM - 10:00 AM PT

Sheraton Palo Alto Hotel
625 El Camino Road
Palo Alto, CA

James W. Grice, Chair of the firm's Data Center and Digital Infrastructure Practice, will present on the "Fortifying the Backbone: Managing Emerging Risks in Digital Infrastructure" panel at Marsh Risk's 2026 Silicon Valley Technology Risk Forum. The forum is a two-day program bringing together peers, industry experts, and Marsh specialists for presentations, panels, collaboration, and networking.

As technology companies innovate rapidly, the risk landscape continues to grow more complex and interconnected. This year's forum focuses on understanding multifaceted risks—from cyber threats to regulatory shifts—and developing strategies that help organizations navigate uncertainty with confidence.

The annual conference attracts a wide range of attendees, including risk professionals, legal experts, treasurers, CFOs, and legal counsel from both established and emerging technology companies, and is designed to spark meaningful discussion and connect participants with practical resources to
