

In The News

Ten Akerman Lawyers Named to Law360's 2026 Editorial Advisory Boards

March 26, 2026

Ten Akerman lawyers have been selected to serve on Law360's 2026 Editorial Advisory Boards, spanning 10 practice areas and regions.

Law360's Editorial Advisory Boards are composed of practitioners selected through a rigorous nomination process, drawing on lawyers across a range of practice areas and expertise. Board members provide recommendations on how to advance Law360's coverage and offer expert insight on significant issues impacting their practices and clients' sectors.

The following Akerman lawyers were selected to serve on the 2026 Law360 Editorial Advisory Boards:

- David C. Blum, Chair, Tax Practice Group — Tax Authority: State & Local
- Gerald B. Cope, Chair, Appellate Practice — Appellate
- Mark S. Bernstein, Chicago Office Managing Partner — Illinois
- Brittanie Browning, Partner, Litigation Practice Group — Georgia
- Ginny Childs, Orlando Office Managing Partner — Banking

Related People

Mark S. Bernstein
David C. Blum
Brittanie Browning
Ginny Childs
Gerald B. Cope
Naheem J. Harris
Erin R. Hines
Jennifer Duval Lindy
John H. Thompson
Kenway Wong

Related Work

Appellate
Bankruptcy and Reorganization
Federal Tax Litigation and Controversy
Financial Services
International Tax
Litigation
Real Estate
State and Local Tax Consulting and Controversy
Tax

Related Offices

Atlanta
Chicago
Miami
New York

Orlando
Washington, D.C.

- Naheem J. Harris, Partner, Real Estate Practice Group — Real Estate Authority
- Erin R. Hines, Partner, Tax Practice Group — Tax Authority: Federal
- Jennifer Duval Lindy, Partner, Tax Practice Group — Tax Authority: International
- John H. Thompson, Partner, Bankruptcy and Reorganization Practice Group — Bankruptcy
- Kenway Wong, Partner, Litigation Practice Group — Florida

Law360 is a leading legal news and analysis publication covering major developments across more than 60 practice areas and industries.