Kathleen Prystowsky to Speak at the 2026 AHIA Spring Meeting

April 16, 2026

2:15 PM – 3:15 PM ET

The Restoration Ashville

68 Patton Avenue

Ashville, NC

Kathleen Prystowsky, partner in Akerman’s Hospitality Sector Team, will speak on a panel titled “When Management Agreements Go Bad,” at the 2026 AHIA Spring Meeting, hosted by the Academy of Hospitality Industry Attorneys (AHIA). She will highlight key areas of disagreement in hotel management agreements and offer practical paths to resolution.

AHIA is a specialized, national non-profit association of experienced attorneys focused on legal issues in the travel, tourism, restaurant, and hospitality industries. Founded in 1997, it provides networking, education, and resources to help members navigate legal challenges in hotels, casinos, and related sectors.
