vCard

Gina brings more than ten years of experience in corporate immigration, with a practice spanning both business and family-based matters. She is highly trusted by clients and colleagues alike for her direct engagement with employers, managers, directors, and foreign nationals, and ability to provide clear, practical guidance on complex procedural and case-processing issues.

In addition to managing a wide range of nonimmigrant and immigrant matters, Gina has played a key role in overseeing immigration coordinators, ensuring consistent workflow, prioritization, and high-quality case management. Her experience includes E, H, L, O, and TN petitions; PERM and I-140 filings across EB-1, EB-2, and EB-3 categories; prevailing wage determinations; naturalization and TPS applications; RFE responses; J-1 waivers; I-9 audits; and consular processing matters worldwide.
