Scott Kessler to Speak on Forum Selection for Complex Commercial Disputes at LexTalk World New York 2026

July 23, 2026

3:45 PM – 5:00 PM ET

Scott Kessler will participate in the round table discussion titled “Arbitration vs Courtroom Battles – Choosing the Right Forum for Complex Commercial Disputes” at the LexTalk World New York 2026 Conference & Exhibition. This legal conference brings together global legal leaders for two days of keynote sessions, panel discussions, and high-impact networking.

The conference’s The New Legal Order: Technology, Data, and Global Control track explores how rapidly evolving technology and data regulation are reshaping the legal landscape. Scott’s session will examine the strategic considerations that shape forum selection in high-stakes commercial matters, weighing the relative advantages of arbitration and traditional litigation across a range of dispute types.
