Christian George Honored Among Jacksonville's Ultimate Attorneys

March 9, 2017

Christian George was selected to receive the 2017 Ultimate Attorneys award by the Jacksonville Business Journal. The publication recognized legal leaders across the region for their impact on Jacksonville's business community. George was featured for his aptitude to build relationships with his clients and the community. The publication also highlighted his active involvement in professional organizations, serving as president of the Jacksonville Bar Association Young Lawyers' Section and most recently as president-elect of The Florida Bar's Young Lawyers Division.

The publication wrote, "Working collaboratively to find practical solutions for clients is the best part of the job, George said... He fosters these relationships by making work enjoyable and guiding clients efficiently through difficult times."
