The Akerman Angle Employment Law Series: NLRB Reset? What a New Board Majority Could Mean for Employers

June 24, 2026

In Episode 16 of the Akerman Angle Labor and Employment Series, Jeff Kimmel and Damien DeLaney, Co-Chairs of Akerman's Wage and Hour Practice, are joined by Akerman's Traditional Labor Co-Chair, Amy Moor Gaylord, to discuss the potential impact of the President's recent move to fill an open seat on the National Labor Relations Board. With the Board regaining a quorum, the conversation explores how this shift could enable significant policy changes. Amy shares insights on what employers can expect as a new member joins the Board and how those developments may affect both union and non-union workplaces.
