vCard

Evan Friedland advises insurers, buyers, sellers, and other clients with respect to transactional risk insurance solutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other complex business transactions. His practice focuses on the issuance of representations and warranties insurance policies, guiding clients through the underwriting process, policy negotiations, and other transaction-related risk management issues.

Drawing on prior experience representing parties in a broad range of corporate transactions, Evan brings a practical understanding of the legal and commercial issues that drive M&A deals. His background includes advising on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, restructurings, and corporate governance matters, allowing him to identify transaction risks throughout the underwriting process.
