Joshua Kammeraad to Present on Mixed Use Development Projects

August 20, 2026

3:00 PM – 4:00 PM ET

Virtual Webinar

Akerman Real Estate Partner Joshua Kammeraad will present on the virtual program, “Mixed Use Sites: Restrictions, Reciprocal Easements & Other Potential Pitfalls,” presented by ACC Real Estate Network. Joshua will join fellow industry professionals to discuss the complex legal and operational issues that frequently arise in mixed-use developments, including use restrictions, reciprocal easement agreements, and other considerations that can impact project success. During the program, panelists will examine common pitfalls that can create liability, limit flexibility, or result in costly disputes, while offering practical strategies to help identify risks early, negotiate stronger agreements, and support successful projects throughout their lifecycle.
