Akerman is a sponsor of the 2026 Woman of the Year Gala, hosted by New York Women Executives in Real Estate (WX). This distinguished annual event honors an exceptional woman whose leadership, accomplishments, influence, and commitment have helped shape New York's commercial real estate industry. This year, WX will honor Nancy Lashine, Founder and CEO of Park Madison Partners, for her contributions to the industry.

Proceeds from the gala support WX's mission of advancing women in real estate through scholarships, mentorship opportunities, educational programming, professional development initiatives, and meaningful networking experiences. Akerman's Beth Zafonte is proud to support WX and their efforts to foster the next generation of industry leaders throughout the New York metropolitan area.
