Webinar

Akerman's Alcohol Beverage Sector Team Chair, Ian G. Bacheikov, will speak on a Strafford (a BARBRI company) webinar titled "Restaurant Purchase and Sale Transactions: Due Diligence and Drafting Considerations for Buyers and Sellers." The program will examine key legal and practical considerations involved in the purchase and sale of restaurant businesses, including due diligence and drafting provisions in purchase and sale agreements to protect the interests of buyers and sellers.

The panel will address the complexities that distinguish restaurant transactions from typical commercial real estate sales, including:

- Key considerations for buyers and sellers during the due diligence process
- Important provisions to include in purchase and sale agreements to protect buyer and seller interests
- The importance of buyer and seller representations and warranties in restaurant transactions
- Factors that make restaurant purchase and sale transactions more complex than typical commercial real estate transactions
