Akerman Advises Vesterra Capital Partners in Investment in Array Architects + Advisors

September 10, 2026

Akerman represented Vesterra Capital Partners (formerly known as Comvest Private Equity), a private equity firm, in its platform investment in Array Architects + Advisors (Array), a Philadelphia-based architecture and advisory firm primarily serving the healthcare market.

Founded in 1983, Array provides clients with architectural design, planning, project management, and strategic advisory services. The firm serves the full spectrum of healthcare facility types, from acute care hospitals to outpatient and specialized treatment settings. The investment supports Array's continued growth and strengthens Vesterra's presence in the AEC sector.

The Akerman team advising Vesterra was led by Corporate Partner Andrew H. Hard and also included Corporate Chair Emeritus Carl D. Roston and Corporate associates Andrew J. Kim, Paola Benitez, and Glorimer Rodriguez Sierra.

Vesterra Capital Partners is a lower middle market investment firm focused on control investments in the services economy, partnering with companies across business & infrastructure services, healthcare, and consumer sectors. Founded in 2000, Vesterra partners with founders, family owners, and operators who are ready for their next stage of
