Jason Lichtstein to Discuss Data Center Siting at 2026 Alabama Brownfields Conference

October 1, 2026

8:15 AM – 5:40 PM ET

Pelham Civic Complex
500 Amphitheater Road
Pelham, AL

Jason Lichtstein, Office Managing Partner of Akerman’s Atlanta office, will present “The Latest in Cleanup and Redevelopment Efforts in Data Center Siting and Advancing AI Initiatives” at the 2026 Alabama Brownfields Conference, hosted by the Alabama Brownfields Association.

The one-day conference will convene environmental professionals, government officials, developers, community leaders, and other industry stakeholders to discuss current trends, regulatory updates, and practical strategies for brownfields cleanup and redevelopment.

Attendees will gain insights into the challenges and opportunities involved in transforming underutilized or potentially contaminated properties into productive, safe, and sustainable spaces that support economic development and community revitalization.
