Tammy Mercer and Amanda Pooler to Speak at CenterForce Women in Law & Leadership Summit

September 29, 2026

Martinique New York on Broadway
49 West 32nd Street
New York, NY

Tammy Mercer and Amanda Pooler will speak at CenterForce’s Women in Law & Leadership Summit: NY, which brings together women leaders from across the legal and business communities for discussions on leadership, influence, resilience, and creating opportunities for advancement.

Tammy will participate in “The Power of the Pivot: Reinvention and Resilience in Women’s Leadership,” a panel discussion exploring how women leaders can navigate career transitions, recognize opportunities for strategic reinvention, and turn periods of change into professional growth. The discussion will examine resilience as a leadership strategy and the importance of adaptability, confidence, and forward momentum.

Amanda will participate in “Who Opens the Door? Building Sponsorship Pathways That Last,” a panel discussion examining how sponsorship and advocacy can create meaningful opportunities for women and build sustainable leadership pathways. The conversation will explore how organizations can develop sponsorship structures that extend beyond
