Lexi Mecum represents corporate clients in complex litigation matters, with experience spanning product liability, class actions, consumer warranty disputes, and personal injury matters. She has managed substantial portfolios of active litigation, overseeing matters through discovery and evaluating case-specific issues, litigation strategy, and procedural requirements.

Lexi's experience includes representing Fortune 25 corporate clients in complex breach of warranty litigation under the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act, where she develops discovery strategies, analyzes case trends and opposing counsel approaches, and drafts and reviews motions, discovery responses, subpoenas, meet-and-confer correspondence, and other litigation materials.
