Jared Weingard is an associate in the Corporate Practice Group. During law school, he served as an in-house legal intern, where he worked across departments to draft master services agreements, statements of work, business associate agreements, and amendments for the company's clients. Jared brings a business foundation to his practice, having earned a degree in business administration with a minor in entrepreneurship. As executive producer of one of the largest homecoming events for a university in the nation, he managed a budget of approximately $600,000, negotiated contracts, and led a team of more than 300 people.
