Akerman Represents Craft Work Capital in Acquisition of Muschlitz Excavating and Stealth Clearing & Demolition

October 23, 2026

Akerman represented Craft Work Capital, a private equity firm focused on specialty contracting firms, in its acquisition of Alpha Infrastructure, a civil and site development platform headquartered in Bath, Pa., whose operating companies include Muschlitz Excavating and Stealth Clearing & Demolition.

Founded in 1990, Muschlitz Excavating provides site development services to commercial, industrial, and institutional clients across the Lehigh Valley, including mass earthwork, utility installation, grading, and paving. Stealth Clearing & Demolition provides demolition, land clearing, site remediation, and material recycling services across the region. The acquisition marks Craft Work Capital's first platform investment in civil and site development.

The Akerman team representing Craft Work Capital was led by Matthew O. Hendy, Partner, Corporate Practice Group, and E. Paul Quinn, Co-Chair, Corporate Practice Group, and included key support across the firm's national platform from:

- Thomas J. Kearney, Chair, Data Privacy and Security Practice
- Robyn D. Neely, Chair, Environment and Natural Resources Practice
