or improper lending practices, letters of credit, regulatory compliance, cease and desist orders and asset recovery. Marsh is a member of Akerman's Diversity and Inclusion Committee and a fellow with the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity. He serves as president and chairman of the board for the Youth Competitive Soccer Club and as a board director with the South Florida Autism Charter Schools Inc.

The selection process for the Savoy award began with a review of the landscape encompassing the spheres of influence that greatly affect those considered as top lawyers. These areas include practice focus, career achievements, firm leadership, pro bono work, community service and overall reputation. The selection committee included Savoy's editorial board and a legal advisory panel comprised of prominent judges, corporate counsel and accomplished law professors.
