Palash Pandya Featured as Minority Powerbroker by Law360

March 3, 2015

Palash Pandya, deputy chair of Akerman's Diversity and Inclusion Committee, was featured in Law360's "Minority Powerbroker" series, for his continued leadership in the legal community. In a Q&A with the publication, Pandya provided his perspective on diversity within the legal industry. He focused on the importance of being proactive about developing a plan for success and advised younger lawyers to consider joining professional organizations and other programs, aimed at helping them establish strong relationships with colleagues and clients.
