Media Showcases Akerman's Regulated Substances Task Force

May 5, 2014

In response to new legislation passed by the Florida Legislature legalizing a non-euphoric marijuana extract, Akerman formed a Regulated Substances Task Force to assist clients as they navigate the myriad laws in the U.S. that govern regulated substances, including medical marijuana. The Akerman Task Force was showcased in the Daily Business Review and Law360. The articles reported that the group is comprised of senior lawyers and veteran regulators with experience in compliance, transactions, legislation and litigation, and core strengths in health care, pharmacy, alcoholic beverage and banking regulations.
