Greg Limoncelli represents financial institutions and borrowers in commercial lending, trade finance, receivables purchase, and workout matters. His experience includes single lender, unitranche and syndicated facilities for cash flow, secured, asset-based, acquisition, highly leveraged, factoring, subscription, mortgage, structured, and cross-border facilities. As co-chair of the firm's Opinions Committee, Greg has extensive experience in the preparation of third-party legal opinions including those involving complex secured and structured transactions.

Greg also co-chairs the firm's Senior Living & Care Sector Team, and his experience includes the preparation of agreements for senior living facility operators and the acquisition, sale, management, and financing of assisted living facilities, skilled nursing facilities, and continuing care facilities.

Greg also represents clients in the formation and organization of corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships; the acquisition and sale of businesses; and the dissolution and liquidation of businesses. Greg also has experience in projects for the development and expansion of distributed energy resources (DERs), battery storage and mobile capabilities, advanced metering and rate structuring, and energy efficiency initiatives, and in the resulting challenges of connecting and dispatching to the power grid and the impact on load management.
