Media Showcase Akerman's Plans to Move to Miami's Brickell City Centre

October 10, 2014

Akerman announced plans to become the lead office tenant with Brickell City Centre in Miami, an innovative $1.05 billion project developed by Swire Properties Inc. at the epicenter of one of the largest financial districts in the United States. Reported by the media as Miami's largest corporate lease transaction in 2014, Akerman's plans were showcased in CoStar, Bloomberg BusinessWeek, Daily Business Review, GlobeSt., Law360, Miami Herald, Multi-Housing News, South Florida Business Journal, World Property Journal, among others.

Akerman Chairman and CEO Andrew Smulian was quoted, "We see Brickell City Centre as a remarkable, mixed-use environment that will offer our people and our clients a truly unique experience. These new offices will provide Akerman with the opportunity to apply design thinking to not only where we work but how we work. Our objective is to create an efficient, dynamic space that encourages collisions of discovery and innovation — hallmarks of our law firm and our client-centered culture."
