AkermanIN and Radical Partners to Cohost Social Entrepreneurship Bootcamp

December 9, 2015

AkermanIN and Radical Partners, a social impact accelerator, today announced plans to lead the next cohort of a social entrepreneurship bootcamp. The bootcamp will take place in Akerman's Miami office, and is dedicated to fostering the leadership of high-impact, imminently-scalable social ventures. The program will resource the entrepreneurial community with skills training and networking opportunities through workshops and one-on-one coaching, accelerating innovation throughout Miami. Applications are now being accepted for the bootcamp, which will launch in early 2016.
