Akerman Closes $307 Million Portfolio Acquisition for GEO Group

March 2, 2015

Transaction Further Positions Client to Meet U.S. Demand for Correctional and Detention Bed Space

Akerman LLP, a top 100 U.S. law firm serving clients across the Americas, represented long-time client The GEO Group, Inc. (GEO), in a $307 million acquisition of eight correctional and detention facilities from LCS Corrections Services in an all cash transaction. The deal, which closed on February 17, is set to help GEO meet the demand for correctional and detention bed space in the United States.

An owner and operator of correctional and detention facilities around the world, GEO financed the acquisition with borrowings under its $700 million revolving credit facility. Following the acquisition, GEO now owns or manages 106 facilities totaling approximately 85,500 correctional, detention, and community reentry beds worldwide with a growing workforce of approximately 19,000 professionals.

The Akerman team was led by partners Stephen Roddenberry and Scott Wasserman with the Corporate Practice Group, and William Arnhols, chair of the Banking, Lending & Structured Finance Practice. Other lawyers significantly involved in the transaction include corporate partners Daniel Schwartz and Peter Dame, and associate Sergey
