Carl Roston and Kenneth Wiggins Author Article in The Deal on M&A Purchase Price Adjustments

March 15, 2013

Carl Roston and Kenneth Wiggins authored an article in The Deal titled, “Judgment Call: So True.” In their article, they address the necessity to pay careful attention to “true ups,” which are uncapped post-closing purchase price adjustments usually included in acquisitions involving private targets. They focus on the legal and financial aspects of these provisions and advise on how to avoid pre-closing disagreements about working capital adjustments.
