Jonathan Robbins Discusses Implications of Federal Shift on State Marijuana Laws with Washington Post

January 5, 2018

Cannabis Practice Chair Jonathan Robbins was quoted in a Washington Post report titled, “Federal Position on Pot Met with Confusion, Pushback,” regarding Attorney General Jeff Sessions’ decision to change federal enforcement priorities affecting the legal marijuana sector. While the action does not change any of the nation’s marijuana laws, Robbins explained the practical implications businesses may face from this policy shift, as well as the steps industry players should take now to ensure their compliance with state laws.
