

In The News

Builder Magazine Highlights Eight Trends Impacting Real Estate Development from Akerman Survey

June 3, 2015

In an article titled, “Eight Trends Impacting Real Estate Development,” Builder Magazine examined the top real estate trends affecting the commercial and residential sectors, as indicated by the 2015 Akerman U.S. Real Estate Industry Outlook Survey. From the nation’s job recovery and aging population to alternative lenders and tier-two cities, Akerman lawyers were quoted for their view on the evolving real estate market, including Neisen Kasdin, a land use partner in the Real Estate Practice Group and Miami Office Managing Partner; Steven Polivy, chair of the Economic Development & Incentives Practice and New York Office Managing Partner; Beppy Owen, co-chair of the Senior Living Facilities Practice; and Andrew Berman, a partner in the Real Estate Practice Group.

Related People

Neisen O. Kasdin
Steven P. Polivy

Related Work

Real Estate

Related Offices

Miami

Click here to view this news.