

Seminars and Conferences

Sexual Harassment: Recognizing and Limiting Your Exposure

February 15, 2018

8:00 AM – 10:30 AM ET

Grand Hyatt Washington

1000 H Street Northwest

Washington, D.C.

Angela Hart-Edwards and Chris Duke will present a morning seminar for private sector, union and non-union employers. This interactive seminar for executives, HR professionals, and in-house lawyers will detail what employers need to know to limit exposure to sexual harassment claims, especially in light of recent events. The team will also discuss employment law changes and new agency administrators regulating workplace discrimination and harassment policies. Topics will include: what preventive measures employers must take, how to handle a claim including the internal investigation, appropriate discipline for employees and management, and how to respond to administrative charges of discrimination and lawsuits.

Register

Please click here to register for this event.

Related People

Christopher S. Duke

Related Work

Labor and Employment

Related Offices

Washington, D.C.