WorkedUp: Off-The Clock Wage/Hour Litigation In A World of Constant Connectedness, Remote Work, and Gig Economies

February 6, 2018

Matt Steinberg welcomes Plaintiff's wage and hour class action attorney Rachel Haskell from the Law Office of Christopher Davis, to discuss how off-the-clock claims are being litigated in an increasingly connected world. In this wide-ranging and forward thinking chat, Matt and Rachel discuss litigating wage and hour claims in the gig/outsourced/on-demand economies, the dramatic impact that smartphones and GPS-enabled apps continue to have on tracking work time and litigating off-the-clock claims, a spirited debate related to employees' right to privacy, and other best practices for how to properly compensate increasingly remote employees and avoid off-the-clock litigation.
