

Seminars and Conferences

Urban Land Institute Program on Public Private Partnerships

Presented by the Urban Land Institute and hosted by Akerman

February 20, 2018
11:45 AM ET

Akerman LLP
420 South Orange Avenue
Orlando, FL

Akerman and ULI will present a series of educational members only sessions in select Florida markets highlighting the challenges and opportunities associated with creating effective public-private partnerships in the current economic environment. Cecelia Bonifay, Chair of Akerman's Land Use and Development Practice, will moderate the discussion with Neisen Kasdin and other speakers as they explore the new Successful Public Private Partnerships report and the key principals and best practices for planning and procuring successful P3 initiatives.

Register

Click here to register for this program.

Related People

Neisen O. Kasdin

Related Work

Land Use and Development
Public-Private Partnerships
Real Estate

Related Offices

Miami
Orlando