James Burns Quoted in Bloomberg BNA on Antitrust Enforcement Outlook Under New FTC Nominees

March 12, 2018

James Burns was quoted in a Bloomberg BNA report titled, “New FTC Makeup to Continue Robust Health-Care Enforcement,” outlining how the White House’s nominees under consideration by the U.S. Senate are likely to continue advancing existing priorities in the healthcare sector by the Federal Trade Commission.

“Under the new administration, both the FTC and the DOJ have shown a strong interest in aggressive antitrust enforcement in healthcare, and I would expect that to continue going forward,” Burns told the publication.
