LaKeisha Marsh to Speak on Transgender Topics and College Athletics

Presented by the National Association of College & University Attorneys (NACUA)

June 28, 2016

San Francisco Marriott Marquis
780 Mission Street
San Francisco, CA

LaKeisha Marsh will be a panel speaker at the National Association of College & University Attorneys' (NACUA) Annual Conference. Her first panel, "Transgender and Gender Identity Topics on Campus," will discuss best practices for staying abreast of the ever-changing complexities of today's diverse workforce and student body. Her second panel, "College Athletics 101: What Every University Lawyer Should Know," will cover comprehensive best practices for mitigating risk. The conference is attended by NACUA members, as well as lawyers practicing in the higher education sector and general counsel.
