Akerman Bolsters Real Estate Finance Practice and Continues Los Angeles Office Growth with Partner William Bernfeld

April 23, 2018

Akerman LLP, a top 100 U.S. law firm serving clients across the Americas, continues the growth of its national Real Estate Practice Group with the addition of partner William Bernfeld in Los Angeles. Bernfeld enhances Akerman’s core strengths in financial services and commercial real estate, with an emphasis on structured finance and financing vehicles for institutional lenders and clients across the capital stack. He is the latest addition to Akerman’s expansion in Los Angeles, which prompted the firm to relocate to The CalEdison DTLA.

“Bill brings decades of experience in various facets of commercial real estate, helping clients to advance their strategic investing and development goals,” said Eric Rapkin, chair of the Real Estate Practice Group. “His arrival further strengthens our core capabilities for clients in California and nationwide.”

William Bernfeld

Bernfeld focuses his practice on real estate and commercial law. He regularly assists clients in complex financing transactions and acquisitions, dispositions and leasing of real estate projects in a variety of sectors and asset classes, including office, retail, restaurant, hospitality and industrial. He counsels and leads teams for lenders to provide permanent, construction and distressed project financing, as well as handling asset-based and commercial lending transactions on behalf of institutional clients. Additionally, Bernfeld's background as a bankruptcy lawyer uniquely positions him to assist clients with distressed real estate transactions, including loan workouts and other restructuring needs.

Bernfeld joins Akerman's experienced group of real estate lawyers, named by Law360 as one of the largest legal teams in the real estate sector. In the last year, the Real Estate Practice Group has welcomed former Broward County Attorney Joni Armstrong Coffey as partner in Miami, in addition to a leading team of four land use and zoning partners in Chicago headed by veteran lawyer John "Jack" George. Other recent additions to the firm include Corporate Finance and Lending Practice Co-Chair Robert Stein in New York and Austin, Texas, Office Managing Partner Todd Reed, whose combined financial services and development experience bolsters Akerman's transactional strengths.

The latest addition to Akerman's Los Angeles team, Bernfeld is part of a thriving team that has expanded in recent months to include partners Kanika Corley in the Litigation Practice Group and Caroline Mankey in the Intellectual Property Practice Group, Zachary Bulthuis in the Labor and Employment Practice Group and Kitty Ryan, a former deputy assistant director for the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's Office of Regulations. Associates Jade Brewster in the Labor and Employment Practice Group and Aaron Garcia in the Real Estate Practice Group have also joined the office since January 2018.
