Americas Linkage Mission

Presented by the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce

November 29, 2014 to December 7, 2014

Dan Jacobson will participate in a week-long Americas Linkage mission in China and Hong Kong presented by the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce (GMCC) in conjunction with the 15th Annual Hong Kong Forum. Dan currently serves as the chair of the International Committee for the GMCC, which promotes the expansion of international trade and economic development in South Florida through inbound and outbound missions, such as the China and Hong Kong program. This program will aim to facilitate business development opportunities through country briefings, business meetings, seminars, and various networking opportunities.
