Tamara Malvin Selected Among ELG 40 Under 40 by GGB Magazine

October 3, 2018

Tamara Malvin was chosen by Emerging Leaders of Gaming (ELG) and Global Gaming Business magazine (GGB) as a member of the 2018-2019 class of the “ELG 40 Under 40.” GGB’s advisory board selects 40 Under 40 finalists who “display impressive work ethic amidst ongoing challenges and show a commitment to the growth and health of [the] industry.” The full “ELG 40 Under 40” list will be featured in GGB’s November issue.

Malvin represents businesses and individuals in commercial and civil litigation across a variety of sectors, including lodging, gaming, insurance, banking, and international entities sued in Florida. She also represents casino and pari-mutuel operators in litigation, appellate, and regulatory matters.
